

Have you always wanted to be part of an expedition or fieldwork?

Can you see yourself enjoying the adventure, regardless of disability?

Equal Adventure invites you to an evening of inspirational lectures at the Royal Geographical Society (with IBG) in London. Chaired by Dame Tanni Grey-Thompson, and Felicity Aston with a cast of inspirational and informative speakers.

Learn from these leading adventurers, athletes, coaches and representatives from schools and disability organisations across the UK.

You Can!

Equal Adventure Lecture 2010

Wednesday 27th January, tickets: £15* *See the website for more details

Royal Geographical Society (with IBG)

www.equaladventure.org

Call us on: 01479 861200 or email us at: lecture@equaladventure.org

